

Unit 3 > Text 2: Harassed (pp. 92-93)

Un exercice complémentaire sur les connecteurs.

(Exercice corrigé sur cette page. Page suivante : exercice en version photocopiable.)

Connectors

Complete the following sentences with the appropriate connectors from the list.

As soon as • Whenever • unless • Unlike • Although • In order to • neither • On the contrary • both

- _____ the narrator looked outside, he felt Parry was watching him.
- _____ he was in contact with the police, the narrator forgot what to say.
- _____ he felt harassed, nobody had actually threatened him.
- _____ other people who harass others, Parry had never used insulting language.
- Parry was _____ rude nor insulting. _____, he was _____ polite and respectful.
- _____ make charges against someone, you need some proof.
- The police cannot intervene _____ there are serious problems to report.

Corrigé

- Whenever the narrator looked outside, he felt Parry was watching him.
- As soon as he was in contact with the police, the narrator forgot what to say.
- Although he felt harassed, nobody had actually threatened him.
- Unlike other people who harass others, Parry had never used insulting language.
- Parry was neither rude nor insulting. On the contrary, he was both polite and respectful.
- In order to make charges against someone, you need some proof.
- The police cannot intervene unless there are serious problems to report.

Unit 3 > Text 2: Harassed (pp. 92-93)

Connectors

Complete the following sentences with the appropriate connectors from the list.

As soon as • Whenever • unless • Unlike • Although • In order to • neither • On the contrary • both

- _____ the narrator looked outside, he felt Parry was watching him.
- _____ he was in contact with the police, the narrator forgot what to say.
- _____ he felt harassed, nobody had actually threatened him.
- _____ other people who harass others, Parry had never used insulting language.
- Parry was _____ rude nor insulting. _____, he was _____ polite and respectful.
- _____ make charges against someone, you need some proof.
- The police cannot intervene _____ there are serious problems to report.

Unit 3 > Text 2: Harassed (pp. 92-93)

Connectors

Complete the following sentences with the appropriate connectors from the list.

As soon as • Whenever • unless • Unlike • Although • In order to • neither • On the contrary • both

- _____ the narrator looked outside, he felt Parry was watching him.
- _____ he was in contact with the police, the narrator forgot what to say.
- _____ he felt harassed, nobody had actually threatened him.
- _____ other people who harass others, Parry had never used insulting language.
- Parry was _____ rude nor insulting. _____, he was _____ polite and respectful.
- _____ make charges against someone, you need some proof.
- The police cannot intervene _____ there are serious problems to report.

Unit 3 > Text 2: Harassed (pp. 92-93)

Connectors

Complete the following sentences with the appropriate connectors from the list.

As soon as • Whenever • unless • Unlike • Although • In order to • neither • On the contrary • both

- _____ the narrator looked outside, he felt Parry was watching him.
- _____ he was in contact with the police, the narrator forgot what to say.
- _____ he felt harassed, nobody had actually threatened him.
- _____ other people who harass others, Parry had never used insulting language.
- Parry was _____ rude nor insulting. _____, he was _____ polite and respectful.
- _____ make charges against someone, you need some proof.
- The police cannot intervene _____ there are serious problems to report.