

INSIGHT TE / EXTRA ACTIVITY

Unit 1 > Text 4: A lovely chat (pp. 32-33)

Un résumé lacunaire.

(Exercice corrigé sur cette page. Page suivante : exercice en version photocopiable.)

Text summary

Complete the following summary of the text.

This text is about the first _____ between _____ and _____, two young adults who _____ the same _____ in England. The extract describes their _____ and Holly's _____ about her new _____.

Although she thinks he is _____ and _____, she soon realises that he is also quite _____. When she introduces herself he _____.

He looks quite _____ and his room is filled with _____. Then Holly makes a fool of herself when she believes his name is _____ whereas it is actually _____. She is quite off-balanced by his reaction when he tells her that it was nice _____.

The problem is they barely _____ and as he turned back to _____, Holly has the clear impression that her new mate _____.

Corrigé (propositions)

This text is about the first encounter/ meeting between Addison and Holly, two young adults who share the same house/ flat in England. The extract describes their first conversation and Holly's feelings/ opinion about her new house mate/ flatmate.

Although she thinks he is impolite/ rude and ill-mannered, she soon realises that he is also quite gorgeous/ handsome/ good-looking. When she introduces herself he doesn't even bother to answer her/ to turn around.

He looks quite absorbed/ caught up in what he is doing and his room is filled with computers/ cables. Then Holly makes a fool of herself when she believes his name is Addison Madison whereas it is actually Addison Farthing. She is quite off-balanced by his reaction when he tells her that it was nice chatting to her/ having a chat with her.

The problem is they barely talked to each other/ introduced themselves/ exchanged a few words and as he turned back to resume his work/ go on working, Holly has the clear impression that her new mate is not very friendly/ quite a character/ not welcoming at all/ quite weird.

Unit 1 > Text 4: A lovely chat (pp. 32-33)

Text summary

Complete the following summary of the text.

This text is about the first _____ between _____ and _____, two young adults who _____ the same _____ in England. The extract describes their _____ and Holly's _____ about her new _____.

Although she thinks he is _____ and _____, she soon realises that he is also quite _____.

When she introduces herself he _____.
He looks quite _____ and his room is filled with _____. Then Holly makes a fool of herself when she believes his name is _____ whereas it is actually _____. She is quite off-balanced by his reaction when he tells her that it was nice _____.

The problem is they barely _____ and as he turned back to _____, Holly has the clear impression that her new mate _____.

Unit 1 > Text 4: A lovely chat (pp. 32-33)

Text summary

Complete the following summary of the text.

This text is about the first _____ between _____ and _____, two young adults who _____ the same _____ in England. The extract describes their _____ and Holly's _____ about her new _____.

Although she thinks he is _____ and _____, she soon realises that he is also quite _____.

When she introduces herself he _____.
He looks quite _____ and his room is filled with _____. Then Holly makes a fool of herself when she believes his name is _____ whereas it is actually _____. She is quite off-balanced by his reaction when he tells her that it was nice _____.

The problem is they barely _____ and as he turned back to _____, Holly has the clear impression that her new mate _____.